

Pend Oreille PUD's 9th Annual 811 Art Contest & Registration Form

April is National Safe Digging month and we need your help to promote 811 & safe digging practices. We invite you to submit artwork that illustrates safe digging utilizing the theme of 811's slogan: "Know what's below. Call before you dig."

Contest Rules:

- Your artwork must be original and created by you.
- The artwork should be related to 811 safe digging practices and the "Know what's below, Call before you dig" theme.
- Artwork may not exceed 8.5" x 11" in size.
- Artwork may be computer-generated, photography, hand-drawn or a combination. (This includes the use of printer ink, markers, crayons, pencils, etc.) Stickers, copyrighted images, and/or slogans outside of the 811 slogan, "Know what's below. Call before you dig" may NOT be used.
- Only one submission allowed per person.
- Entries will not be returned.
- The PUD reserves the right to reproduce the artwork and use the names and age category of the winners.
- Artwork may appear at and/or on PUD platforms, including the website, social media, and advertising.
- A complete registration form must be submitted and accompany the artwork.
- Submissions that do not meet the above criteria will be disqualified.

How to submit:

- ✓ Submit your artwork before 5:30 p.m. on Monday, March 23, 2026, to be considered. All entries must be either mailed to PO Box 190, Newport, WA 99156, Attn: Communications Manager or hand-delivered to the PUD at either the Newport or Box Canyon offices.
- ✓ Entries must include the below completed registration form.

Judging:

The artwork will be judged on creativity, content, clarity and originality. All decisions are final.
